POP-UP MUSEUM AT THE NEWBORO BLOCKHOUSE

1

GOAL

Transform the Blockhouse into an engaging pop-up museum

2

PARTNERSHIP

In collaboration with Parks Canada for preservation and accessibility

3

FUNDING PURPOSE

Establish educational displays, event setup, and interpretive materials

4

GRAND OPENING

Host an official opening weekend, inviting the public to a new heritage attraction

FUNDING REQUEST - $1,700

A modest grant that will provide essential resources for the museum's setup and long-term use

Creates a foundation for continued heritage engagement and community events at the Blockhouse

HOW THE FUNDS WILL BE USED FOR THE POP-UP MUSEUM

Event Setup ($300)

- Sound equipment for speeches and storytelling.
- Decorative banners, directional signage, and branded sandwich boards to guide visitors and highlight the Blockhouse's importance.

Educational Materials ($800)

- High-quality storyboards, artifact descriptions, and mini-exhibits.
- Take-home brochures and self-guided tour maps for continued exploration.

Promotional Campaign ($300)

- Local media and social media ads to reach a broad audience.
- Printed posters and flyers distributed across community centers, schools, and tourist hubs.
- Professional photography and videography will be used to document and promote the event.

Hospitality and Gathering Area ($300)

- Locally-sourced refreshments.
- Pop-up tent and seating for comfort and engagement.
- Interactive kids' activities, such as colouring sheets and scavenger hunts, make the event family-friendly.

BENEFITS FOR RIDEAU LAKES AND NEWBORO

Anticipated Impact

- Preservation: Enhances public access to a historically significant landmark.
- Community Pride: Inspires pride in Newboro's history and heritage.
- Economic Growth: Attracts visitors to restaurants, shops, and accommodations.
- Legacy Building: Ensures Newboro's heritage is celebrated for generations
- Partnerships: Working with government, organizations, and communities to a common purpose

CREATING A LEGACY FOR NEWBORO

A VISION FOR THE FUTURE

Join us in transforming Newboro's heritage into a thriving community asset

- NAHS aims to make the Blockhouse a lasting community asset and educational site.
- Potential to turn this exhibition into a travelling display throughout Rideau Lakes and beyond.
- Plans to expand future programming and community involvement
- Plans with Parks Canada
